

Being a Deutsche Börse Capital Market Partner, Independent Research is part of a large network of capital market experts.

In addition to that, we are maintaining excellent relations with national and international capital market participants including banks, securities trading houses, asset managers, investment companies, financial auditors, law firms, investor relations agencies, the press, annual meeting services providers, etc.